Title: Kamloops Women at Work: 1920-1950 collection

Dates of Creation: 1996

Physical Description: 21 audio cassette tapes, 4 cm of textual records, and ca. 1 cm of photographs

Biographical Sketch:

Dr. Sandra Leigh Matthews is a Canadian historian and writer who publishes on the topics of women's history and Canadian Literature.

Scope and Content:

Collection consists of oral interviews collected by Sandra Leigh Matthews for the Kamloops Museum and Archives on the topic of working women in Kamloops during the pre-feminist period (1920-1950) and on the status of working women concurrent to the project. Collection also includes a binder of textual records and a small amount of photographs related to the project.

Custodial History:

Records in this accession were collected and compiled by Sandra Leigh Matthews from May-August 1996. It is assumed that this collection was donated to the Kamloops Museum and Archives shortly after the completion of the project directly by Sandra Leigh Matthews.
