Title: Rose Hill Farmer's Institute Heritage Committee fonds

Dates of Creation: ca. 1800s-1980s

Physical Description: 20 cm of textual records, 4 cm of graphic material, 13 audio cassettes, and 15 maps

Administrative History:

The Rose Hill Farmer's Institute Heritage Committee was formed in 1980 to gather historical information on the area south of Kamloops with the goal of publishing a community history book. Committee members included Edith Davidson, Hilma Frolek, Trudy Farina, Dorothy Foley, Andrew Farina, Irva Humphrey, Howard Humphrey, Connie Philip, Warner Philip, and Hibert De Leeuw. The committee gathered photographs and records from community members, conducted oral interviews and collected form interview questionnaires, and published a book in 1984 entitled Bunch Grass to Barbed Wire, which chronicles the communities of Rose Hill, Beresford, Knutsford, Edith Lake, Anderson Creek, and Long Lake.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consists of records compiled by the Heritage Committee of the Rose Hill Farmer's Institute in support of their publication Bunch Grass to Barbed Wire. Records include maps, audio recordings of oral interviews, questionnaires filled out by residents of the area, photographs, and other research materials compiled by the committee.

Custodial History:

Accession 2018.021 was donated to the Kamloops Museum and Archives around 2012 by Connie Philip (via Carolyn Genshorek), a member of the Rose Hill Farmer's Institute Heritage Committee and the editor of Bunch Grass to Barbed Wire.
