Dates of Creation: 1903-1971

Physical Description: 4 cm of textual records, 10 maps, and 1 b&w photograph

Biographical Sketch:

Elizabeth Stockton (nee Campbell) was born in 1896. She came to Kamloops from Scotland in 1928. In 1936 she qualified as a pharmaceutical chemist, and from 1941-1965 she practised as a pharmacist at Galloway-Ellis Drugs, being the first female practitioner in Kamloops. Stockton married Robert L. Stockton, with whom she had one son (Robert Campbell jr) and two daughters (Betty and Barbara). Elizabeth Stockton died on May 14, 1996 in Kamloops, B.C. at the age of 99.

Robert L. Stockton was born on July 17, 1897 in Eccles, England. After immigrating to Canada and settling in Kamloops, Stockton became involved with the business community, working predominantly in the realms of insurance and marketing. Stockton was elected the chairman of the BC Interior Vegetable Marketing Board, the Wartime Prices and Trades Board, and the Interior Marketing Board. He was married to Elizabeth Campbell, with whom he had one son (Robert Campbell jr) and two daughters (Betty and Barbara). Robert L. Stockton died on October 26, 1959 in Kamloops, B.C. at the age of 62.

James Milne Benzie was born on February 3, 1866 in Fergus, Ontario. Benzie was trained as a tinsmith and plumber, and in his youth plied his trade in Ontario. In 1900 he married Halla Jane Harrington, and shortly thereafter settled in Kamloops, B.C. Here Benzie continued working as a tinsmith and plumber for various enterprises and in 1902 he opened his own hardware store. In 1912 he was appointed the inspector of Dominion Lands, giving him responsibility for overseeing homesteads and grazing applications. Benzie continued to work for the government until his retirement in 1929. After his retirement Benzie began working in real estate, and increased his involvement in civic duties. In 1937 he was appointed Chairman of the Parks Board. Benzie was also very involved in the sporting and Church community in Kamloops, notably the Kamloops Lacrosse Club (where he was President in 1901), the Lawn Bowling Club (President in 1938), and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and he owned a fishing lodge at Lac Le Jeune. James Milne Benzie died on May 25, 1956 in Kamloops, B.C. at the age of 90.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consists predominantly of records from the collection of J.M. Benzie, which includes government publications, a train timetable, a cookbook, maps, and a photograph. Other records include a certificate from the Pharmaceutical Association of B.C. issued to Elizabeth Stockton.

Custodial History:

Records were donated to the Kamloops Museum and Archives at various times by Elizabeth Stockton, as follows: accession 1966.020 on February 7, 1966, accession 1966.0187 on September 26, 1966, and accession 1984.051 on July 21, 1984. Records from accession 1966.020.002 are noted to have been found in the home of J.M Benzie (135 Seymour Street). Records were formerly separated and placed in the Vertical Files collection, Map collection, and Photograph collection based on their format. Records were brought together as a distinct collection during reprocessing in 2020.
